2

Clarity and Focus

The essay contains a central idea that may not be completely clear or focused. The writing does not completely address the demands of the prompt, nor fulfill the writing purpose.

Purpose, Focus, and Organization

The response is somewhat sustained within the purpose, audience, and task but may include loosely related or extraneous material; and it may have a controlling idea with an inconsistent organizational structure. The response may include the following:

- Focused controlling idea but insufficiently sustained or unclear
- Inconsistent use of transitional strategies with little variety
- Uneven progression of ideas from beginning to end with an inadequate introduction or conclusion

Organization

The organizational structure of the essay is inconsistent and/or ineffective. Some transitions may not completely or effectively show relationships between and among ideas throughout the essay. Either an introductory paragraph or a concluding statement/paragraph may incomplete or unclear.

Evidence and Elaboration

The response provides uneven, cursory support/evidence for the controlling idea or main idea that includes partial use of sources, facts, and details. The response may include the following:

- Weakly integrated evidence from sources; erratic or irrelevant references or citations
- Repetitive or ineffective use of elaborative techniques
- Imprecise or simplistic expression of ideas
- Some use of inappropriate domain-specific vocabulary
- Most sentences limited to simple constructions

Development

The essay develops a central idea with some facts, definitions, examples, quotations, etc.; however, they may not be the most appropriate or effective supports and/or may be used inconsistently throughout the essay.

Conventions of Standard English

The response demonstrates an adequate command of basic conventions. The response may include the following:

- Some minor errors in usage but no patterns of errors
- Adequate use of punctuation, capitalization, sentence formation, and spelling

Language and Style

The essay attempts to establish a formal style that may not be maintained throughout. The essay attempts to vary sentence structure and uses some precise language that may be domain-specific at times in a way that may address the complexity of the topic inconsistently. The essay contains some errors that may, at times, interfere with meaning.

The response demonstrates an adequate command of basic conventions. The response may include the following:

- Some minor errors in usage but no patterns of errors
- Adequate use of punctuation, capitalization, sentence formation, and spelling

Emerging

1

Clarity and Focus

The essay does not have a clear, focused, and effective central idea that addresses the demands of the prompt and fulfills the writing purpose.

Purpose, Focus, and Organization

The response is related to the topic but may demonstrate little or no awareness of the purpose, audience, and task; and it may have little or no controlling idea or discernible organizational structure. The response may include the following:

- Confusing or ambiguous ideas
- Few or no transitional strategies
- Frequent extraneous ideas that impede understanding
- Too brief to demonstrate knowledge of focus or organization

Organization

The lack of structure and effective transitions make the essay difficult to understand. The essay is missing entire structural elements, such as an introductory paragraph and/or concluding statement/paragraph.

Evidence and Elaboration

The response provides minimal support/evidence for the controlling idea or main idea, including little if any use of sources, facts, and details. The response may include the following:

- Minimal, absent, erroneous, or irrelevant evidence or citations from the source material
- Expression of ideas that is vague, unclear, or confusing
- Limited and often inappropriate language or domain specific vocabulary
- Sentences limited to simple constructions

Development

The essay does not develop a central idea with facts, definitions, examples, quotations, etc. Some details to develop the ideas may be present, but may not be used effectively to develop the central idea.

Conventions of Standard English

The response demonstrates a partial command of basic conventions. The response may include the following:

- Various errors in usage
- Inconsistent use of correct punctuation, capitalization, sentence formation, and spelling

Language and Style

The essay does establish and/or maintain a formal style. The essays uses little variety in sentence structure, and the language is general and not domain-specific. The essay contains errors that interfere with meaning.
